St. Leonard's town is actually quite old – established circa 1660's – however, it has had several locations, with the present location most likely established circa 1900. The collection of commercial buildings that comprise "downtown" St. Leonard are generally older than fifty years of age. There is new commercial growth, as in a large bank, convenience store, and gas station complex at the prominent northeast corner of MD 765/St. Leonard's Street and Calvert Beach Road, and late 1990s construction of new residences along Calvert Drive, just one block west of MD 765.

The following buildings were assessed as the St. Leonard district:

- US Post Office,
- The two story mixed use building at 4821 St. Leonard Road,
- The garage at 4925 St. Leonard Road,
- Three residences now used for commercial purposes at 4820 and 4880 St. Leonard Road,
- The Chesapeake Market at 5015 St. Leonard Road, and
- The appliance store at 5020 St. Leonard Road.
